Dear Applicant,

We are delighted that you have applied to Stockholm University. Your application is now under process and the first selection results will be published by the end of March.

In the meantime, we would like to inform non EU/EES/Swiss applicants about two scholarship opportunities.

Swedish Institute scholarships

The application period is 1-11 February.

If you are a non EU/EES/Swiss citizen and have no exemption from the application and tuition fees, you might be eligible to apply for scholarships offered by the Swedish Institute to cover the tuition fees and living costs.

The primary requirement to any application for scholarships is that you have paid the application fee due on 1 February. If you have failed to do so, your application will not be processed and you will not be considered for any scholarships.

A second requirement is that the programme for which you have applied, has been selected by Stockholm University for the Swedish Institute scholarships.

A list of eligible programmes can be found on the Swedish Institute website.

Please note that the four Swedish Institute Scholarship Programmes are aimed at different countries and in some cases also at specific subject areas.

Visit the Swedish Institute's website to find out more about their scholarship programmes and how to proceed with the application:

www.studyinsweden.se/Scholarships/

Stockholm University's tuition fee waivers

The application period is 27 – 31 March.

If you are admitted in the first selection of results, published on 27 March, you will have the opportunity to apply for the scholarship scheme at Stockholm University.

In this case, an electronic application form will be sent to you on 27 March to the e-mail address given in your application to universityadmissions.se.

The application has to be returned by 31 March. The nominees will be informed around 5 April.

Please note that the scholarship scheme at Stockholm University is not aimed at students in the 12 countries that Sweden has a long-term development partnership with; see website below for list of these countries. If you are from one of these countries you should instead apply for the Swedish Institute Study Scholarships.

A scanned copy of your passport will be required along with your application.

The application period is very short, so we suggest you to make sure having a scanned copy available.
